

UNION REPRESENTATIVE

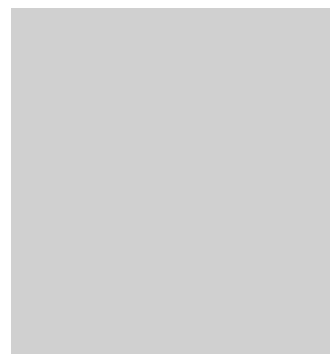

Union representative

Contact information

Deputy union representative

Contact information

The union representative represents members of PAM in the workplace. She or he further develops the workplace in cooperation with employees who are members of PAM and provide advice and help in employment relationship matters. The union representative conveys information and informs employees about PAM membership.

