2. The supervisor is responsible for the service or other operational readiness of the shop or department within the limits of his/her authority.
3. When the supervisor is on leave, the supervisor's duties should be arranged in a way that enables the purpose of the leave to be fulfilled by, for example, employing a deputy or by any other means organized upon by the employer.

Section 3 Employment contract

The written employment contract shall include the minimum details specified in the pro forma agreement in this collective agreement.

Section 4 Working conditions and times

1. The working conditions are determined in accordance with the provisions applying to sales assistants in the Collective Agreement for the Commerce Sector, with the exceptions set out below.

Meal and coffee breaks

When locally agreed, the meal break may be:

- reduced by no more than 30 minutes, or
- completely eliminated, whereupon the employee shall be able to take a meal during working time.
- agreed between the person and his/her own supervisor.

If operational factors render it impossible to take a meal and coffee break in the agreed or prescribed ways, the supervisor shall decide independently on when to take a break.

2. When preparing the schedule of work shifts, supervisors must be given the opportunity to express their opinions on the length of shifts, the placement of shifts, suitable practices regarding breaks, and the granting of days off and annual leave.
3. Annual leave shall be arranged with the supervisor's wishes in mind, as well as arrangements that contribute to the capacity to cope with work.
4. The actual realisation of leisure time and working time shall be discussed at the initiative of either party.
5. This agreement does not otherwise affect the company-specific working time arrangements for supervisors.

Section 5 Notice period

1. The employer shall comply with the notice period stated in Section 5, Clause 1 of the Collective Agreement for the Commerce Sector:

Duration of continuous employment	Period of notice of termination
No longer than one year	14 days

Over 5 years	1 month

3. By way of derogation from clauses 1 and 2, the notice period for both parties can be set at two months by agreement.

If the employer's notice period in accordance with clause 1 is longer than the one-month notice period agreed on the basis of this section, the employer must comply with the longer notice period.

Section 6 Wages

Salaries

1. Supervisors' wages are determined by agreement.
2. The wages of a supervisor with a fixed salary shall be incremented by at least the general raise at the same time as the sales assistants receive a raise.

4. The supervisor's wages must be higher than those of his/her subordinates unless there are justified grounds for deviating from this.
5. The employer and the supervisor shall annually discuss the remuneration and the bases for determining remuneration, such as the application of any remuneration schemes that the employer may use and the bases for any bonuses and/or supplements. A further purpose of this discussion is to enhance the supervisor's understanding of the remuneration system and the associated grounds.

Occupational wellbeing

6. At the end of the remuneration discussion or at a separate time in the workplace, a discussion shall be held concerning the supervisor's ability to cope with the work and the work-related burdens.

Additionally, the discussion will cover:

- training and onboarding needs to support the supervisor's competence.
- the adequacy of time and resources allocated to supervisory work, including specifically administrative supervisory tasks.
- the impact of a potential on-call or standby arrangement on the workload of supervisory work.

Call-out pay and work outside regular working hours

7. Call-out pay is determined in accordance with the provisions of the Collective Agreement for the Commerce Sector concerning sales assistants.

If there are compelling reasons for the supervisor to handle work duties outside of regular working hours, the time spent on such work shall count as additional work or overtime and shall not be subtracted from the hours in the averaging system unless otherwise agreed at the supervisor's initiative.

Instructions for completing the memorandum of dispute

General

The memorandum of dispute procedure only applies to members of the Service Union United PAM working for member companies of the Finnish Commerce Federation where the employment relationship is subject to the Collective Agreement for Retail Supervisors.

Disputes regarding the working and wage conditions of clerical employees should primarily be resolved in the workplace in compliance with the local order of negotiation set out in Section 8 of the collective agreement. Each party can avail itself of its own union's advisory services during workplace-specific negotiations. The purpose of any support or advice that may be provided by unions is to help the negotiations to flow smoothly and identify a solution to the dispute within the workplace.

The memorandum of dispute should only be completed after a sufficiently thorough local negotiation when the parties wish to have the dispute settled at union level.

Subject of the dispute

The subject of the dispute is described in brief by way of a title, such as the requirement to pay wages during sick leave.

Agreed course of events

The undisputed facts underlying the dispute are described under the course of events. This statement accelerates the unions' handling of the matter as it provides the handling personnel with a rapid overview of the events without them needing to request further clarification. These undisputed background details should be brought to the fore by both parties when requesting their own union's views on the events.

Claims of the local parties, with detailed grounds

The clerical employee must present his/her own detailed demands and grounds for these demands during the local negotiations. The employer's response and grounds for the response are reviewed during the negotiations.

Sending the memorandum to the unions

If the memorandum is not sent to the unions electronically, the parties shall deliver the memorandum with appendices to their own unions.
